Our History

Genova's started long before Hampstead knew about this wonderful Italian secret. A first generation family of skilled bakers from Sicily began operations in 1976 in nearby Hanover, PA. Genova's quickly grew to 12 shops in the Central Pennsylvania and Maryland areas. All of these shops were "express carryout" stores with no eat-in dining. Over the years, it became clear that the shining star in the Genova's crown was the Hampstead, MD location.

In 1992, Genova's began a small dining room that sat a mere 50 guests. A menu filled with delicious Italian entrees was added for dinner and lunch service. With the popularity of Genova's wonderfully tasteful and unique cuisine growing, it became obvious that it was time to expand and share this secret.

In November of 1997, Genova's began new construction to increase the restaurant seating, adding a beautiful pub and a game room. After five months of construction, the "brand new" Genova's opened its doors on April 17th, 1998.

While the expansion added seating for over 250 guests, a dynamic pub environment and weekly live entertainment, the old world style and mystic remains. And let's not forget that the wonderful carryout service the area has come to love still thrives for all to enjoy.

At Genova's, our family is still involved in the creation of a special experience for our guests every single day. The family can be found each day in the kitchen producing our wonderful breads, spending time with our guests, or ensuring each person who joins us for a meal is satisfied in every way.
